LAWSHES TO MOVE

WILL OCCUPY SMALL RANCH
THEY HAVE BOUGHT NEAR MONROVIA

A. L. Lawshe and his son-in-law, H. W. Evans, have purchased a ranch near Monrovia and will move to it ere long. Mr. Evans and his wife came here from Owyhee, Nevada, a few weeks ago and since that time the two families have been searching diligently for a ranch on which both could settle down and raise poultry and fruit. They hoped last week they had secured a place in Glendale, but they could not make satisfactory arrangements for the purchase so the deal fell through. Glendale is sorry to lose these two families. Mr. Lawshe was for more than 20 years in the service of the U. S. Government and made a record of which he may be proud. Taken from the editorship of a small country weekly paper in Wabash, Ind., and made Third Assistant Postmaster General under Roosevelt, he served in that position several years, was auditor of the Philippines later and was Indian agent in Arizona for five years. He was on terms of intimate friendship with Roosevelt, Taft, Root and other prominent public men and obtained a grasp on national affairs that made him a valuable aid to his party. When we entered the war in April, 1917, he was one of the first to offer his services in any capacity but, like Roosevelt and Gen. Wood, his fine record made under the opposite party made him persona non grata to the administration and he was not allowed to help in the great crisis as he would have been so glad to do. Glendale is sorry to lose A. L. Lawshe and his good wife as citizens.

CURIOSITY SEEKERS FLOCK TO LAWLER HOME

Visitors from Santa Monica to the Elks' Lodge doings last night report that travel was almost blocked at Wilshire boulevard and Hampshire avenue by people thronging in autos and on foot to view the ruins of the Oscar Lawler home that was blown up by a bomb early Sunday morning.

"FILLMORE NIGHT"

MORE MEMBERS ARE INITIATED INTO ELKDOM WITH IMPRES- SIVE CEREMONIES

Monday was "Fillmore Night" at the local Elks' Lodge and was a big night in more senses than one. Practically the whole membership from Fillmore was present and there were good delegations from Alhambra, Pasadena, San Pedro, Long Beach, Santa Monica and Los Angeles.

Nine candidates were inducted into membership and the initiatory work was beautifully performed. It was almost letter perfect. It was so good that it encourages the expectation that the lodge will score high in the contests to take place at the big San Diego meeting for which officers and the White Star Patrol are drilling.

The lodge meeting was followed by a fine luncheon and cabaret entertainment in the jinks hall. Norman Otis, a member of the lodge, was the only local entertainer. The rest of the talent was imported from Los Angeles.

The members initiated were:

The following gentlemen who had been elected to membership two weeks previous were initiated: Harry C. Levey, Louis A. Hart, T. J. Morgan, Roy N. Clayton, E. J. Jackson, J. F. Harden, William J. MacHenry, Sterling P. Moore and H. C. Ferguson. Ten others were elected to membership and will be installed at the next regular initiation, and the applications of twenty more were received and placed on file.

The evening's program included a very fine report from Past Exalted Ruler Bert Woodard, delegate to the Grand Lodge Convention at Atlantic City in which he told of the wonderful address made there by Commander Evangeline Booth in which she thanked the Elks for their financial support of the Salvation Army during the war and declared that without it they could never have done what they did for American soldiers at the front.

The Pasadena delegation included Exalted Ruler Cheeseman, Harry M. Tichnor (President of the California State Elks' Association) and Past Exalted Ruler Potts. With the Elks from San Pedro came Past Exalted Ruler Bacon and other prominent lodge members.

The clerk of the lodge was instructed to notify all the lodges of the southern district that Past Exalted Ruler Albert D. Pearce of this lodge will be a candidate for the office of District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler of California South.

PRIVATE VIEW

GLENDALE BUSINESS MEN WIT-
DRAMA NOT ON MARKET

A few of the business men of Glendale were privileged Monday afternoon to witness a private exhibit of a photo drama produced by the Premier Picture Company of Los Angeles, a new concern which is looking for studio site not far from the business center of the Angel City and which would like to locate in Glendale where electric power can be had at a low price and where licenses cost less than in Los Angeles. Several propositions have been submitted to the corporation and there is a good prospect that they will accept one of them.

The picture entitled "A Man's House" presents a pretty story which is of a nature to afford a variety of scenery of a picturesque character. The photographic work is very fine. The plot is grouped around two sisters, the leading lady in the company taking the double role. It provides therefore some very wonderful work in double exposures where the two characters are seen face to face in intimate association in conversation. The privileged guests who attended the exhibition were enthusiastic over the drama and are confident the hopes entertained by the producers of marketing it for $50,000 in New York will be realized.

MASONIC PICNIC

Masons, Eastern Stars and their families from Glendale, Eagle Rock and Burbank held on Saturday afternoon in Griffith Park what was, no doubt, the first annual Masonic Union Picnic. The occasion was truly a family affair and a happy family at that.

The program was entirely informal. Mrs. Calvin Whiting, in her refreshing style, read two splendid selections. Ira Vance and Clementine Laird Valandingham Moore made numerous and sundry speeches as the spirit moved him. Billy Broxholme played a solo on the Park Ax which was well received by an appreciative audience. Mrs. Claude Pulliam led quite a number of charges on the Park Zoo, much to the delight of the very young Masons. Mark Lee was in complete charge of the barrel of 2.75 per cent. When last seen he had about three gallons left and was still able to say "Methodist Episcopal."

At 6:30 the lids began to burst from the lunch baskets and the aroma of coffee to permeate the air. For more than an hour joy was unconfined. After dinner a permanent organization was effected to lay plans for a similar gathering to be held the latter part of next June. The officers chosen were Ira Vance, president; Mrs. C. O. Pulliam, vice-president; A. W. Tower, secretary; Clem Moore, treasurer (bonded).

APPRECIATES EVENING NEWS

Mrs. W. A. Kulp has joined the chorus of praise of the Glendale Evening News as an advertising medium. She used it not long ago to advertise chickens for sale and no sooner had the paper begun to circulate than the telephone began to buzz. She and Mr. Kulp were amazed at the number of answers they got and convinced that subscribers to the News read it from "kiver to kiver."

BLUE RIBBON WINNER

Glendale has a good many dog fanciers who make no great display or noise about their possessions, but when occasion arises they are there with the goods.

Miss Ellen Churchill and Miss Minnie Moulton of 1243 South Maryland have just returned from attending the Santa Barbara Dog Show of August 1st, where they entered their female English Setter, "Bettie," in competition with some very "swell" dogs from the kennels of wealthy residents of Santa Barbara and Montecito. Bettie justified their faith by bringing home a blue ribbon and being awarded "reserve" after a Montecito winner. It is generally understood that all shows of this character which are largely financed and popularized by local fanciers, some of the prizes must be kept at home. In this light "reserve" means a good deal. At the last Pasadena show Bettie was "reserve" to the best dog in the show.

The ladies say it was a fine exhibit and well worth the journey independent of the honors secured, as Santa Barbara is what might be called a "dog proud" city where many beautiful and highly-bred animals are to be seen.

COAL A FACTOR IN H. C. L.

MINES IN OHIO AND WEST VIRGINIA CANNOT GET CARS
TO MOVE IT—MAY BE FORCED TO SHUT DOWN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—Senators Hitchcock and Pomerene today declared that the coal shortage threatens to seriously complicate the cost of living situation. Pomerene said that Ohio and West Virginia coal men had told him they cannot get cars to move the coal. He said if the situation is not relieved the mines will be forced to shut down throwing many men out of work, saying that "business will stagnate and terrible suffering will result."

At the White House it was stated that the President is devoting his entire time to a study of the cost of living and will not resume the conferences on the peace treaty until some plan for lowering prices is evolved.

TRAIL BOMBERS TO IMPERIAL VALLEY

DEPUTY SHERIFFS INSTRUCTED TO "KEEP GOING UNTIL YOU GET THEM"—LAWLERS RESTING COMFORTABLY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 5.—Four deputy sheriffs left this morning for the Imperial Valley in pursuit of two men known to be bomb experts. The men left Los Angeles last night and were last reported speeding through Riverside. The sheriff believes they are implicated in the bomb explosion at the home of Oscar Lawler. The instructions given to the deputies were: "Keep going until you get them." It is believed that they are heading for Mexicali.

Oscar Lawler and his wife are resting comfortably.

NATIONALIZATION OF RAILROADS

IS BEING CONSIDERED IN WASHINGTON AS A STEP TO-WARD NATIONALIZATION OF ALL INDUSTRIES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—The nationalization of railroads with the nationalization of other industries as a possible sequel, engaged the attention of Washington today. Chairman Cummins of the Senate Commerce Committee, declared he believes the "present trend of events is toward the nationalization of industry," and that the nationalization of railroads would be followed by the nationalization of other industries.

It is learned that some members of the joint congressional committee on railroad wages will try to establish the principle that labor considers the public ownership of railroads a step toward the control of other industries when the railroad brotherhood chiefs appear before the committee tomorrow.

Senator Thomas of Colorado declared if the railway shopmen alone were granted their wage demands it would mean $800,000,000 increased pay annually.

PRIZES CAPTURED

PEKINGESE PUPS SHOWN BY
MRS. CLARENCE WEBB
WIN HONORS

Mrs. Vivian Webb, wife of Dr. Clarence Webb of this city, has just returned from Santa Barbara in triumph with her two distinguished Pekingese puppies who captured prizes at the largest dog show of its kind that has ever been held west of the Rocky Mountains. It took place the first and second of August in the park of Hotel Belvidere in the city named and was quite a social event as the exhibit was patronized by wealth and fashion. One of the puppies, "Hoo Hong," who won the trophy donated by Mrs. W. G. Sydney-Harris (herself an exhibitor) for the best American bred Pekingese, is gray in color. His little brother, "Sing Gee," a red dog, took the premium offered for the best Pekingese puppy. The dogs are ten months old and weigh about ten pounds each. Entries, including imported and American-bred animals numbered about thirty, and Mrs. Sydney-Harris showed some wonderful imported stock.

Mrs. Webb had no expectation that her entries would rank so high, and feels well compensated for her trouble in making the journey to Santa Barbara. The mother of these puppies is Peggie Pet and the sire Ching-a-Ling. Both are show dogs with creditable records.

WM. CHAPPELL RETURNS TO GLENDALE

Wm. Chappell arrived in Glendale Monday morning from a three months' visit with a daughter in Holden, Mo., and a son in Bloomfield, Iowa. He found it very hot in both states and was glad to get back to Glendale. His train was held up in Salida, Col., several hours by a washout caused by a cloudburst in the mountains. The track was covered with sand to a depth of several feet, in places, and rocks weighing many tons were whirled along by the resistless water and many of them left between the rails. He said the sensational story published by many papers that a trainload of passengers was marooned for four days without food by this same flood was false, as no train was delayed over a day. His wife is at Norwalk taking treatment and Arthur is in a sanitarium at Pasadena, so Mr. Chappell feels very lonesome and may go to the Soldiers' Home in a short time.

TO GO EAST FOR VACATION

Rev. Charles H. Scott, pastor of the First Methodist Church, is planning to go east on the 18th of August to be gone for a month. The official board of the church has voted him a vacation to be taken whenever he sees fit, and he now expects to leave on the date named unless something unexpected interferes. His itinerary includes Chicago, Detroit, Dayton, Ohio, Washington, New York, and possibly Boston.

GILBERT B. WRIGHT

NON-COMMISSIONED NAVAL OFFI-CER NOW EN ROUTE TO HIS HOME IN THIS CITY

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Wright and family of 451 Palm Drive street are very happy in the prospect of soon seeing the son of the house, Gilbert B. Wright, who has been in service with the U. S. Navy and expects to soon receive his discharge. In any event he is to have a furlough and his mother has been advised that he is now in San Francisco and will soon be here. The fact that his return will overlap with the arrival of the Pacific Fleet in southern waters is also a source of pleasure as he will be able to make the event of far more interest to his family than it could possibly be to the uninitiated. During the brief time he has been in the navy he has been promoted to the highest rank attainable by a non-commissioned officer, viz., Chief Petty Officer. His service in foreign waters was on the Concord, a submarine chaser, and he has many thrilling stories to tell of his experiences.

CHANGES IN STORE FRONT

Baird & Morrison are just having completed extensive changes to their store front. The doorway has been moved to the corner next to Glendale avenue and a big show window now extends across the entire front. Just back of this are three booths for serving ice cream and beverages, which can accommodate 18 people. The front has been painted in imitation of blue-gray granite and presents a very striking appearance.

PAUL P. BLACKBURN

NEPHEW OF ROBT. BLACKBURN
IS COMMANDER OF U. S. S. MIS-
SISIPPI IN PACIFIC FLEET

Robert Blackburn of Cedar street and Mrs. C. E. Byrkit of Belmont street feel that they have a special right to claim proprietorship in the Pacific Fleet which is to come to Los Angeles harbor Saturday because their nephew and the grandson of the late Rev. W. S. Blackburn, Commander Paul P. Blackburn, is with the squadron as commander and executive officer of the U. S. S. Mississippi. He may get leave to stop at San Diego for his wife and children are there and he will naturally want as much time as possible in which to visit with them, but his friends here are hoping to see him on Saturday and to bring him to Glendale for a brief visit.

He was an Omaha boy and was graduated from Annapolis about 15 years ago. His advancement has been rapid. It has been reported that he and his ship are to be a part of the escort squadron that will attend Secretary of War Baker when he sails from Los Angeles to Honolulu August 12th.

NO NEED FOR OWENS RIVER

Monrovia is not worrying over a shortage of water nor considering annexation to Los Angeles for the privilege of sharing the Owens River output. Instead she is sinking wells as fast as she has need of more water. She is fortunate in owning land in the San Gabriel Valley in almost the center of a basin which drains a district one hundred miles in area. According to Mr. Gierlich, Water Superintendent, the city could pump from its latest well an average of 50,000 inches for a year without lowering the water plane fifty feet. Its well has 476 feet of water at the present time and thus far the decrease in water supplies which have caused such a fall in the water plane in many places, has not affected this well. The problem in Monrovia is simply the furnishing of facilities to lift and handle the water.

NEWCOMERS FROM OHIO

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bidlake, who came to this city about a month ago and bought a home at 237 North Maryland, are expecting to get possession of their property in about a week. In the meantime they are domiciled at the home of relatives, Mrs. Marcella Metcalf, and her daughter, Miss Beda Metcalf. These two ladies are now in the north making their way to Canada on a trip which will occupy about three weeks, and write that they are having a very pleasant time. Mr. and Mrs. Bidlake have been visitors in Glendale in the past and when their son returned from France and stopped off in Ohio to see them, it was not hard for him to persuade them to sell out and join him here.

MOVING INTO NEW BUILDING

Bartlett & French are moving today into the new building just completed for them at the southwest corner of Brand and Harvard. It is a beautiful new home they are moving into. Their old location will be occupied at once by A. S. Knox's Service Station.

ON SAD ERRAND

MRS. A. L. LAWSHE SPEEDS EAST-
WARD TO BEDSIDE OF DY-
ING MOTHER

A. L. Lawshe of 620 North Maryland received a telegram Monday from Wabash, Ind., announcing that his wife's mother, Mrs. Wampler, was on her deathbed from cancer of the bowels and could not last more than four or five days. Mrs. Lawshe hurriedly got ready and started for Wabash this morning in hopes of getting there before the end comes. Mrs. Wampler is almost 80 years old and when she left here in the spring after a visit of several months with the Lawshes she seemed in the best of health and was still supposed to be so by her daughter till the telegram came. Mrs. Wampler accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Lawshe and Mr. Lawshe's brother in the long auto trip from Wabash, Ind., to Glendale last October, in company with C. E. Hutton and wife and another machine load of friends. She it was who discovered the Hutton machine at the foot of the canyon near Santa Fe on that fatal morning of October 24th when Mr. Hutton was killed and Mrs. Hutton seriously injured when their machine rolled down the canyon side and over rocks and stumps till it brought up 100 feet below the road.

IS THIS REPRESENTATIVE OF THE UNITED STATES?

Five mob murders in the first five months of this year, divided among the five states of Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi and Texas, are described from local accounts in a current publication by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. They were murders which took the form of burnings in public. They were all directed against negroes. They involved alleged assaults on white women in only two cases, and in one of those the mob unquestionably chose the wrong man.

Fairly typical of all was the lynching of Lloyd Clay in or near Vicksburg, Miss. When arrested, charged with attempted assault, he was taken before the victim, who said he was not the man. Nevertheless, a mob formed, forcibly took him from jail, dragged him forth into the public streets, stripped off his clothing, poured oil over him, applied a match, and raised the twisting, naked body high to the limb of a tree in front of a woman's residence, where the life was slowly burned out of it to the yells of a crowd which included many women and children.

This and the other exhibitions of mob bestiality were in America—America aroused to the wrongs of Ireland, America sternly asking about pogroms in Poland, America through its senate loudly alleging evil motives for Japan in Shantung. They were given in the section of America which leads in the present widespread creation of new gibes at law while indulging by whole communities in the most cruel and debasing and demoralizing instincts known to human nature in defiance and contempt of all law.—New York Herald.

WHY AMERICA ADOPTED PROHIBITION

In the answer to this question dry America finds her approach to other nations. A dry America means a dry world if American prohibition is reasonable and successful.

There are five outstanding reasons why America adopted Prohibition:

1. Scientific investigation of the effects of alcohol upon the individual and the race, and widespread distribution of conclusions reached.

America reached the conclusion that a little alcohol does a little harm and much alcohol does much harm; the man who drinks a little is worth less and the man who drinks a lot is worth nothing. And furthermore, that alcohol is a race poison; every drinker, to the degree of his drinking, is a sinner against the race. This arraignment of alcohol is so fundamental that, once accepted, alcohol had to go.

2. The new social conscience.

Men are being set above money. It is being recognized that the first and chief function of society is to make men. Because alcohol interfered with the making of men and was corrupting politics in the interests of special privilege, alcohol had to go.

3. Modern cost finding systems and workmen's compensation laws.

Formerly the case against alcohol rested on moral evidence only. The moral reasons are as strong as ever, but we fear little or nothing about them. The deadly reasons urged today against alcohol are eugenic and economic. Because alcohol poisons the race, wastes food, multiplies costs and lowers efficiency, alcohol had to go.

4. Effective organization of temperance forces.

When the dry forces of America ceased to act independently and began to act together—when the five strong fingers of the prohibition hand were clenched into a mighty prohibition fist, alcohol had to go.

5. State after state had sampled Prohibition and liked it.

There were twenty-five dry states before Congress submitted the national amendment. There are thirty-two dry states now. These states had tried the thing and liked it. It worked. Hence the nation is going to try it and so alcohol had to go.

And if, having tried it, the nation likes it, other nations will try it until there will be a constitutional majority of the world, and from the world alcohol will have to go.

To call this hysteria or hypocrisy or cowardice reveals a desperate state of mind. It is merely the expression of the deliberate conclusion of a great nation that nothing short of complete prohibition can cure the evils of the organized liquor traffic.—California Liberator.

DID AN AMERICAN WRITE ARTICLE TEN?

Speaking at the cradle of American liberty—not in old Faneuil Hall because it is not large enough, but in Mechanics Hall, Boston—Senator Hiram Johnson of California said of Article Ten, Covenant of The Society of Nations:

"It is unthinkable that any American wrote the article."

"It is unthinkable that any American can subscribe to Article Ten."

American fathers and American mothers want peace, and they want a League of Nations which will give them peace. Ask any American mother in Kansas or Illinois or California if she wants peace. She will say, "Yes, with all her heart."

"Ask her if she is willing that her son and her grandson shall go to the Balkans, to China, to Siberia, to Arabia, to the Dalmatian coast, to Poland, to compel peace, she will answer as promptly, 'No.'

"Are ye ready, Americans, to pledge your sons and your son's sons to maintain and preserve for all time the present governments of the little nations we are setting up in Europe and the present governments and boundaries of the British and Japanese empires?"

There was, from the thousands gathered at that meeting, a spontaneous, tremendous, long continued and soul-stirring "NO" that rocked the very walls of the building. Resolutions were adopted unanimously and with vigorous expression of determination to back them with action.

These resolutions declared that the assemblage of American citizens there gathered would stand opposed to any covenant "that does not protect American rights and ideals and which binds us to guarantee the integrity of the British and Japanese Empires."

A long period of life under censorship has so dulled the spirit of the average American that he reads the story of the Boston meeting with a sense of shocked surprise. He doubts for the moment the patriotism of any person or of any group which ventures to express openly opinions that do not bear the stamp of approval of the national administration. He looks over his shoulder to see whether, perhaps, there is some scout of the espionage corps looking at him, watching his face to see whether he shows approval of the sentiment expressed.

But after all, there is still free speech in America, and the right of a free press to stand for the beliefs of the people who, since the first American revolution, have held to certain liberties remains undisturbed by constitutional enactment.

If Article Ten of the proposed Society of Nations does threaten infringement of these rights for which our forefathers fought and died, then their descendants have the full privilege of discussing it openly and of opposing its enactment as a part of the American law.

The article is very clear. It cannot be misunderstood. It does just two things in the most far reaching and effective ten or twelve lines of print that ever came from any press. Absolutely it binds the United States to use military and other force to defend against outside attack, every nation on earth, with a possible exception of two or three not yet members of the society. Effectively it prevents any people on earth from rising up and overthrowing the existing government under which they live. It binds the United States to go in and, with force of arms, to hold in power the governing forces which rule the world, from the King of England, Emperor of India, Canada, Australia and South Africa, to the Mikado of Japan and the Sultan of Turkey.

The article reads as follows:

"TERRITORIAL INTEGRITY: The members of the League undertake to respect and preserve as against external aggression the territorial integrity and existing political independence of all members of the League."

"In case of any aggression, or in case of any threat of danger of such aggression, the Council shall advise on the means by which this obligation shall be fulfilled."—William Francis Hume in the Westerner.

HEAVY SELLING OF RAILROAD STOCKS

NEARLY A MILLION SHARES CHANGE HANDS ON NEW YORK STOCK MARKET WITH PRICES FALLING

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—Sensational declines continued when the stock market opened this morning. Rail stocks were the hardest hit including the Union Pacific, New Haven, Reading, New York Central and Southern Pacific.

During the first half hour speculators dumped huge blocks of stock selling at the highest available prices in the effort to save something. Nearly 300,000 shares were sold in the first half hour. At 11 the morning sales had reached nearly 600,000 shares. Towards noon heavy buying steadied some shares. At noon the sales represented nearly a million shares.

C. W. Hughes, former Examiner agent for Glendale, has rented O. L. Kilborn's store building at Pacific avenue and Vine street and will conduct a grocery store therein.

Dr. and Mrs. Andrew Stephenson and Mr. and Mrs. John Hobbs spent Sunday at Camp Baldy where Mr. and Mrs. Noble Ripley are renewing their honeymoon in celebration of his return from France.

Miss Caroline Ingersoll and Miss Frances Proctor have been enjoying the summer at Long Beach coming to Glendale occasionally to look after their home at 315 North Kenwood and other business matters.

Miss Violet Turner of North Jackson street motored with two friends, Claud James and Miss Maude Heyle to the beach along the Malibu Road, Sunday, where they enjoyed a picnic lunch on the sands and a dip in the ocean.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Franklin and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Franklin returned Sunday night from a three or four days' auto trip to San Diego, La Jolla, Escondido and Riverside. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Franklin and Miss Veta Franklin are spending the day at Catalina.

Mr. E. O. Kepler of 200 West Garfield Ave. is mourning the loss of a cousin, J. M. Richezon, who passed away at Redlands and whose funeral will take place in Los Angeles Wednesday afternoon with interment at Forest Lawn Memorial Park. He was a Mason and the lodge of which he was a member will conduct the services.

Lieut. Russell M. Grose, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Grose of this city, and his wife, left Saturday night for San Francisco where he will resume work with the Matson Navigation Company which he resigned when he enlisted in the navy. He is a member of the Naval Reserve, but is on the inactive list.

Miss Alice Frank and Miss Lorraine Mitchell returned from their mountain hike Monday. They visited Roberts Camp, Muir Lodge and Hooge's Camp and from the last named camp came directly home. All the camps were full and it was hard to get accommodations. Mrs. Peterson, a former resident of Glendale and prominent member of the Eastern Star Chapter, runs Muir Lodge.

Harrison W. Frank of 1558 E. Wilson Ave., who has been at San Joaquin for several months, has returned. The work he went there to do is practically finished and the temperatures prevailing there now—118 to 120 in the shade, were too much for him. He returned by auto and reports a delightful trip.

J. E. Audet, wife and two little sons, who formerly lived at 439 Vine street, were the guests of G. C. Audet and wife, who live in their home, from Friday till Monday. G. C. and J. E. are brothers. They report very comfortable weather and all crops excellent except wheat which was somewhat damaged by an excess of rain at harvesting time.

Friends of Will Marple, who returned from service abroad not very long ago, state that he has taken a job at the shipyards until it is time for him to begin his agricultural course. He has decided to enter the agricultural school at Davis, which is affiliated with the State University. His chum, Will Hewitt, is attending a U. D. C. summer school to better equip himself for teaching in the fall.

MASONIC NOTICE

Unity Lodge, No. 368, F. and A. M., will confer a degree on Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. All Masons cordially invited.

R. W. MASTERS, W. M.

Dr. A. M. Duncan

of San Fernando Road, and H. W. Myers, of Central avenue, left this morning for Huntington Beach to attend the Encampment and will return Wednesday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Sharp have returned from a series of summer outings at the beach and mountains and are now at 219 West Eualia, but not permanently located there. They are looking for a new home in Glendale.

Mrs. L. I. Lowman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Wright of North Glendale, and Mr. Lowman have come up from Long Beach where their home is, to be guests for a week in the Wright home. It is always a pleasant change for them to come to the foothills.

Geo. Murphy of 421 North Brand tells the Evening News he has been bombarded recently with annexation argument, but he cannot see any merit in it. He gave his two sons to his country's service to keep a haughty nation from grabbing weaker ones and he will oppose the absorption of our beautiful little city by the big neighbor on the south.

James W. Graham of 200 East Dryden, who though he has been a resident of Glendale only since last November, is strongly in favor of our beautiful city retaining her individuality, declares his intention of registering just as soon as he has completed a year's residence so he can cast his vote against any action to annex Glendale to another municipality.

Friends of Captain William C. Mabry will be concerned to learn that he has been in the hospital as a patient for about three weeks and for a time was seriously ill from intestinal trouble caused by food poisoning. He is much better though still very weak, and is hoping to get home next month to remain permanently. He has been in charge of an army hospital at Salt Lake City for a number of months, and Mrs. Mabry and his children are impatient for his release.

Rev. A. F. DeLong, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. E. C. Turner, of 420 Burchett street, for the past month, on Monday left for his home in Missouri. While here he occupied both the Methodist and Congregational pulpits where he delivered two fine addresses. He is very much in love with California and contemplates returning to this state if he can find an avocation here that will make it possible for him to do so.

QUARTERLY CONFERENCE

The First Methodist Church of this city is approaching its fourth quarterly conference, the final one of the year. It is to be held on the 13th and Dr. W. L. Y. Davis, District Superintendent, will preside. This is the year in which delegates are elected to the General Conference and when seven laymen and seven ministers are to be elected from the Southern California Conference to the General Conference to be held in Des Moines. According to the law of the church, delegates are elected to lay electoral conference held at the same time as the annual conference, and delegates to the general conference are elected by them, so there is a legal requirement that an election be held. J. N. McGillis, Claud Case and Ernest Osgood will be tellers. All members of the church ten years of age or over are voters.

The quarterly conference is in the nature of a family gathering and every family in the church will be invited to come to the church bringing their refreshments and all having supper together. The quarterly conference will follow.

BIBLE SCHOOL EXHIBIT

The close of the Bible School, which has been in session for a month at the Tropico Presbyterian Church on South Central avenue, was marked by an exhibit Sunday evening of the work of pupils which drew quite a large audience and awakened great interest. There was sloyd work and weaving on display and the program included the telling of Bible stories. It was a wonderful demonstration of good work done by the school, and provided a very novel and instructive program.

THEY JOIN THE CHORUS

Mrs. W. C. Mabee of 920 West Donan has made a serious complaint against the Evening News. She says a three-line ad run just one day in the classified columns brought such throngs to buy her peaches and plums that she was kept busy picking until utterly exhausted. Dr. Hogue, 230 West Colorado, is another victim of the Evening News' drawing powers. He ordered an ad in for two days. Every bit of the stuff advertised was sold in a few hours after the first appearance of the ad and he called up to tell us for goodness sake to take it out. He declared he was going to advertise it again in the News for sale, feeling sure he will dispose of it at once.

MRS. M. L. WOODARD GOING HOME

Mrs. Maude L. Woodard, mother of Bert Woodard of 214 North Maryland, who has been a guest in his home for the past four months, is leaving Wednesday for the east with the intention of visiting her son in Nashville, and Mrs. Bert Woodard's mother in Lebanon, Tenn., and then returning to her home in Athens, Ga. She is a very sweet woman who has made many friends here who sincerely regret her departure and she is most appreciative of the many social courtesies which have been shown her, especially after she had the misfortune to break her arm. The injury is not completely repaired, but she has some pleasant memories in connection with the mishap. She declares that she is coming again next year and if she does she is sure of a welcome from the community.

THROWN BY VICIOUS BICYCLE

One of our new policemen, J. P. Alexander, received a hard fall a few days ago while attempting to control the curvetings of his wild and woolly bicycle, which he had learned to ride shortly before that. He reached up to adjust his cap that the wild winds were trying to snatch from his head, when the vicious steed took the bit in its teeth and, careering wildly from side to side of the road finally deposited him on the P. E. track. His head struck a rail and he was rendered almost unconscious. He fainted at first his skull was fractured. He lost very little time from his work being used to hard knocks when on the police force of Dallas, Texas, for several years, but he still feels the effects of his fall.

ENEMIES TO PROGRESS

The people residing in Glendale who aid in circulating the very false report that Glendale is short of water are working an injury to the best interests of the community. Glendale is fortunate in having plenty of water and an opportunity to get more whenever they sink extra wells. Very few cities are so favorably situated as is Glendale on the water question, and the editor of the Evening News will not be slow in standing up for the truth on this and other questions of like importance to the welfare of the city.

A SPOILED TURKEY

A Glendale lady who is raising chickens and turkeys on a small scale relates an amusing experience she had recently in this work. A chicken hen had brought off a brood of seven turkeys and she attended them devotedly till they were larger than she. The hen got to laying again while still caring for her little flock and they were much distressed when she would slip away from them long enough to attend to this necessary duty. Finally she wanted to get busy in the producing line again so was given another setting of turkey eggs. Her original flock still clustered about her as she sat on her nest till they had to be shut up with the older ones. One of them took sick and was turned out to run at will. He persisted in sitting on the nest next to his mother and tried to coax her away to attend exclusively to him. Finally when she brought off her second brood he was much better and persisted in tagging along with the babies and stealing their food until he had to be again locked up.

MYSTERY

A great deal of speculation has been put forth at an unusually well-trimmed display window of Williams' Dry Goods Store.

Have you the correct solution of just how the relic of the battlefields is kept in motion on the serving tray?

As a climax of several weeks' fine display advertising in the News, the International Correspondence Schools of Scranton, Pa., are holding a special educational exhibit here all this week.

The "Road to Success" is the thought of the exhibit. The central road of life and the fork where it divides one way to success and the other to failure is laid out in gravel paths. On each are cards showing some of the steps to each goal in life. Education and training, such as the schools are giving, of course, being the most trustworthy and safe step to success.

The mystery ball revolves on an oval serving tray elevated on three glass tumblers and with no visible force propelling it, unless perpetual motion has been at last discovered. This carries the strong and true appeal that we are like the ball if we have no special training. It goes round and round never getting anywhere to speak of.

We welcome such a display in such a worthy cause and wish our city could have many such appeals.

C. W. Osborne, who has charge of the display daily and evenings, is one of our citizens representing this well-known educational institution from Pasadena to Venice including the San Fernando Valley. We are also the home town of their Southern California Superintendent in the person of Geo. W. Wilson, of Burchett street. 2841t

RAISING PEANUTS BY THE PECK

One of the many Glendale residents who is making a success of peanut raising in a small way is Rev. Clifford A. Cole, pastor of Central Christian Church. Last year he harvested 14 pounds of "goobers" from two rows only about 50 feet in length. This year he has several more rows and expects a much larger yield. He is using the lot just north of his home at 132 South Kenwood for his garden and its sandy soil is well adapted for peanut raising.

NEW TRANSFER COMPANY

F. W. Anderson and his son, Howard L. Anderson, have opened a transfer office in Glendale at 109 E. Broadway, in the rear of the Glendale & Montrose Railway office. The name of the company is "Andy's Express & Baggage." The office will be in charge of Doty L. Anderson. The phone number is Glendale 1901. The truck they will use will be delivered in a few days and in the meantime they are using the truck belonging to the Glendale & Montrose Ry Co.

BEACH HOUSE PARTY

A group of nine young people and their chaperones from the West Glendale M. E. Church had a house party at Redondo Beach where they secured a cottage and spent the weekend. They were also members of the Epworth League. The group included: Misses Irene and Alda Geravise, Helen and Eva Gold, Anne Cookman, Ruth Spafford, Mesdames Perry, A. S. Davis and Flora Pixley and Messrs. Reed, Alfred Cookman and Guy Pixley.

GRANTED THREE WEEKS' VACATION

At the meeting of the official board of Central Christian Church, held Monday night, Rev. Cole was granted a vacation of three weeks to be taken at his own pleasure. He has had four weeks of strenuous work at conventions, including the current week, and certainly needs a rest. It was decided at this same meeting to have no services in the church next Sunday except Bible School and communion, as many of the members wished to attend the last day of the Long Beach convention.

QUESTIONS TO BE ANSWERED

July 16, 1919.

Mr. Howard Robertson,
President of Board of Public Service Commissioners,
Los Angeles, California.

Dear Sir:

The consolidation of the City of Glendale with the City of Los Angeles is now being agitated in our City, and many of our citizens are desirous of getting correct information upon those things which bear directly upon the reasons being urged for such consolidation. We, therefore, take the liberty of making some inquiry of the officials of the City of Los Angeles concerning these matters. The inquiries which we would like to have answered by you, or such other officials of your City as may be in a position to correctly state answers to the same, are as follows:

1. What would be the amount of the bond issue necessary to be voted to furnish the City of Glendale Aqueduct water, and by whom would such bonds have to be voted and upon what property would the same be a lien?

2. What method would be used by the City of Los Angeles to retire such bonds—that is, would they be retired out of the earnings of the Water Department of the City of Los Angeles, or would they be retired by taxing the property affected by such bond issue, whether that be a district or otherwise?

3. What is the amount of bonds of the City of Los Angeles that the City of Glendale must assume if consolidation between the two cities takes place?

4. To what extent will the property in the City of Glendale be taxed to pay off the bonds of the City of Los Angeles assumed upon consolidation, basing your answer upon the present method of retiring such bonds?

5. What would be the amount in dollars and cents that the people of Glendale would have to pay annually to pay the interest and retire the bonds of the City of Los Angeles assumed by the City of Glendale upon consolidation, basing your answer upon the present method of raising the necessary funds, and assuming, for the purpose of your answer, the assessed valuation of Glendale to be $8,000,000.00?

6. There now exists a bond indebtedness of the City of Glendale incurred before the consolidation of Tropico with Glendale, and not assumed by Tropico, amounting to $323,000, incurred for the purpose of acquiring municipal light and water systems. What method of retirement of these bonds would be followed by the City of Los Angeles—that is, would the same be retired out of the earnings of such public utilities, or would they be retired by taxing the property within the City limits of Glendale as it existed at the time of voting such bonds?

7. There are at present two municipal improvement districts in the City of Glendale covering the territory formerly the City of Tropico and formed for the purpose of acquiring municipally owned light and water plants. The amount of bonds for the two districts aggregates $99,500. What method of retirement of these bonds would be followed by the City of Los Angeles—that is, would the same be retired out of the earnings of said public utilities, or would the same be retired by taxing the property within such districts?

The matters referred to in the above questions are of vital importance to the citizens of Glendale, and in order that we may have the correct answers from those authorized to speak on these questions, we ask you to kindly put your replies to the same in writing.

Respectfully yours,
Signed,
FRANK L. MUHLEMAN,
HARTLEY SHAW,
Trustees of the City of Glendale.

WHERE ARE THE ANSWERS

The Evening News invites the Los Angeles Evening paper that has been so conspicuous in parading before its readers so many false statements concerning Glendale's desire to give herself away to Los Angeles, to answer the above questions by the authority of the Los Angeles City council. These questions were propounded by City Trustees Shaw and Muhleman of Glendale more than two weeks ago and the answers have not yet been forthcoming.

ACT SQUARE

Another day will follow this,
Ah,—that shall surely be,
But the day that dawns tomorrow,
Iad.

May never dawn for thee,
This day is thine, so use it some,
For fear when it has passed,
Some duty has been left undone,

On the day that proved thy last.

What's passed and done is beyond recall,

And the future's all unknown;

Don't speculate on what's to be.

When morning comes, thank God

you're spared.

To see another day;

Tell him at night how you have fared.

Life's burdens on Him lay.

Although your station may be low,

Your life's condition hard

Make the best that falls to your lot.

And you will win reward.

Man's days of toil on earth are few

Compared to that long rest

That stretches through eternity,

For those that's done their best.

Though many rough hills you've had to climb,

And bogs and rivers to wade;

Though thorns and brambles block

your line.

Just push on undismayed,

Determination backed by faith,

And hope to cheer you on,

Shall give thy struggling efforts

strength,

Until your journey's done.

Let your religion be your life,—

Let every word and deed

Be prompted by a love for all,

Whatever be their creed

Let wrangling preachers twist and twine,

Their doctrines new and old;

Act square;—and there is One will see.

Thou art not left out in the cold.

THE EDITOR'S GUESS

A leading citizen in a small town was suddenly stricken with appendicitis and an operation became necessary. The editor of the local paper heard of it and printed this note about it: "Our esteemed fellow citizen, James L. Brown, will go to the hospital tomorrow to be operated upon for the removal of his appendix by Doctor Jones. He will leave a wife and two children."—Truth Seeker.
